Conference - June 1-3, 2010

Dr. Bob Evans joined BCM International (Bible Centered Ministries, International) in 1985 as Director of European Ministries. When communism fell, Bob spearheaded BCM's ministry into Russia, the Ukraine, and the Eastern Bloc countries. He initiated the translation and production of BCM Bible-teaching materials into a number of the Eastern European languages. During this period he saw BCM's missionary family double in size across Europe and expand to many new countries.

In 1998, Bob was appointed President of BCM. A major initiative was to develop a strategic plan for BCM's global ministry and to articulate a clear ministry focus: "Reaching Children and Developing Churches Worldwide." Today the BCM missionary force numbers more than 700 with ministry in 52 countries.

On January 1, 2006, Bob assumed the role of International Representative, traveling the globe as an advisor, encourager, and trainer. He conducts Leadership Development Conferences for missionaries and church leaders in "majority" world countries. He represents BCM on college and seminary campuses and in local churches, challenging individuals to consider becoming involved in the task of world evangelization.

Bob is an alumnus of Washington Bible College and Capital Bible Seminary and received a Doctor of Divinity from Lancaster Bible College. He began his missionary career in Brazil, South America and later served on the staff of WBC/CBS.

Bob and his wife, Corrie, have six grown children and twelve grandchildren.
